Title: "Outpost" and "Dean's Area" what are they?

Post by: tommyfromhyde1 on April 10, 2005, 01:39:00 PM

I went to Hyde School in 1976 and never heard of either of those terms. I guess that a lot can change in 29 years so they must have been added since then. If OD or anyone else can explain I'd be grateful. :smile:

The problem with the "teen help" industry is that it's a bad "solution" in search of a problem.

Outposts consist of Hyde's own wilderness programs.

Did the kid who got frostbite get treated for it? And on a related note, was the kid accused of faking it or self-inflicting it?

I do not feel obliged to believe that the same God who has endowed us with sense, reason, and intellect has intended us to forgo their use

Outpost is a perfect place to have nowadays...
Hyde's taking all these medicated, LD, etc...kids and they disrupt the flow of school so much, it's a perfect place to ship 'em off to!

True, plus it is another way to rake in more money for the Gauld family. They are trying every kind of program within their program so they can to make an extra buck.
